++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Misty and murky, with showers mostly clearing.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers will ease as they continue moving eastwards during the evening, although a chance of further showers across the region remains. Areas of low cloud and fog becoming more widespread through the night. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Thursday:
Fog slowly clearing, leaving the day cloudy, but mostly dry. Cornwall will see the best of any sunshine. Turning chilly in the far east overnight with a risk of frost. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Dry on Friday and Saturday with sunny intervals, but colder with a risk of overnight frost for many. Perhaps rather cloudy by Sunday with patchy rain in the far west.
